STANDING ORDER RE:
PRODUCTION OF POLICE REPORTS TO BATTERERS' TREATMENT PROVIDERS

Penal Code section 1203.97 requires that if a person is granted probation for a crime in which the victim is a person defined in section 6211 of the Family Code, that person must successfully attend and complete a 52 week batterers' treatment program approved by the probation department. In order to accomplish the goals of the 52 week batterers' treatment program, as set forth in Penal Code section 1203.097(c), the provider of the program shall be provided with a copy of the police reports documenting the acts of domestic violence. The contents of the report are only to be used by the program in connection with providing court ordered treatment, and are otherwise to be treated as confidential by the program. The El Dorado County Probation Department is authorized to transmit the police reports to approved batterers' treatment program upon request electronically or by providing a paper copy.
