

1. MAISEL v. BUSSELL, ET AL., 23CV1464Defendants' Motion for Reconsideration of Court's Ruling on Demurrer

Defendants' motion for reconsideration does not meet the standard under Code of Civil Procedure section 1008. Defendants' arguments and evidence cited are more appropriate for a motion for summary judgment, not on a demurrer. A plaintiff's pleading burden is minimal, and the court is not concerned with a plaintiff's ability to prove their allegations or the truth of the allegations at the pleading stage. (Amarel v. Connell (1988) 202 Cal.App.3d 137, 140.) The court confirms its decision overruling defendants' demurrer to plaintiff's 1st C/A.

Defendants' motion for reconsideration is denied.

TENTATIVE RULING # 1: DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION IS DENIED. THE COURT WILL NOT HEAR ORAL ARGUMENT. (DIAZ-BARBA v. SUPERIOR COURT (2015) 236 CAL.APP.4TH 1470, 1490.)
